

Marine Bio I Test #1: Chapters 1-6

Date of Test: Friday October 9th

Format: 100 Points – 6 questions multiple choice, 5 fill in blanks, 5 matching, 10 T/F, 3 essays and 1 drawing and labeling.

What to study:

- A. Class Notes
- B. Class Worksheets
- C. Homework Assignments
- D. Old Quizzes (Quizzes 1-3) *some questions may be repeated on the test!

Some of the Key Concepts/Terms to Know:

- Continental Shelf
- Abyssal Plain
- Continental Rise
- Sonar
- Common Resources
- Territorial Sea (12 miles)
- Anthropocene
- Crust
- Trench
- Mid-Atlantic Ridge
- Fishery
- Satellites
- Human Population Growth
- Latitude
- Longitude
- Algae
- Tsunami
- Positive Feedback
- Negative Feedback
- Photic Zone

Test Review Questions: (Have all questions answered on a separate sheet of paper to prepare.)

1. Give three reasons why we should care about the ocean.
2. How has our knowledge of the ocean changed in the last 50 years (new tools/knowledge)?
3. Why is the Earth considered a system? Give an example of negative and positive feedback within the system.

